

The Public is Left Behind

Suggested Policy

Each criminal justice service will develop and maintain a public awareness and education program:

- to inform the general public of the nature of its services, successes, issues and challenges,
- that uses actual true cases to inform the public, taking the steps necessary to maintain client and operational confidentiality.

Go Ahead and Shoot Me!

Sally – Attempted Murder/Dangerous Use of A Firearm

Peter – Assault Causing Bodily Harm/ Assault
Peace Officer

Juanito – Trafficking in a Controlled Substance

Richard – Possession of Child Pornography

Joseph – Home Invasion

John L. Hill (Pine Box Parole, Durvile Publications Ltd, 2022)

“I want to assure readers that in telling the stories in this book, I am careful that I have not breached lawyer- client privilege by disclosing information intended by the client to be kept confidential. Everything recounted in the following pages is information from public records or material the client has allowed me to repeat”. (page 8)

Val Hoglund (Edmonton Police Service)

“I will never forget the first day I met Amber in 2015 (Amber is not her real name). I was in the Youth Unit.....”

From After The Force, edited by Det. Debbie Doyle (retired). Published by Durvile Publications Ltd, 2021, page 220.

Joann McCartney (Edmonton Police Service)

“One woman, whom I will call Amanda, has been in touch with me for thirty years...”

From After The Force, edited by Det. Debbie Doyle (retired). Published by Durvile Publications, 2021, page 126.

Community

- the city
- a suburban community
- north-side
- west end
- downtown
- rural

Work/jobs

- fast-food restaurant
- construction
- retail sales
- office worker

Program

- sobriety program
- healing facility
- or similar generic term

Education

- a high school
- junior high school
- college
- trades training facility
- university